

CHANNEL 5 SEPTEMBER '85

A SHOWCASE FOR VIDEO.

To coincide with Channel 4 tv's Eleventh Hour series VIDEO 1, VIDEO 2, VIDEO 3, to be broadcast on September 16, 23 and 30, LVA in association with the ICA and DER is presenting CHANNEL 5, a showcase for independent video in London. The events will bring a broad range of contemporary video work to a wider public, through a variety of locations.

- Sept. 9: Cafe Gallery, by the pool, Southwark Park, SE16. 7.30 pm.
The London Open (part one) tapes selected from open submission
- 17: The Albany, Douglas Way, Deptford, SE8. 7.30 pm.
Recent tapes produced through Albany Video.
- 16 - 21: On view daily, VIDEO WINDOWS by artists Tina Keane, George Barber, Marty St. James & Anne Wilson, Clive Gillman, Jeremy Welsh, at branches of DER TV & VIDEO in Notting Hill Gate, East Ham High Street, Upper Street Islington, The Mall, Stratford, Edgware Road. Multiple screen video works presenting new and exciting uses of the medium.
- 17 - 22: ICA FOYER, The Mall, SW1: on view daily:
Video Installations by Steve Hawley and Steve Littman: two pieces exploring the possibilities of double screen video.
- 17 - 22: Six nights of screenings at the ICA CINEMATHEQUE, The Mall.
- 17: TELLING TALES OUT OF ART SCHOOL: narrative tendencies selected by Steve Hawley.
- 18: Not Just What You Say, But The Way That You Say It: video Community & Political video selected by Tony Dowmont.
- 19: SEXUAL STRATEGIES/TEXTUAL PREROGATIVES; counter cultural strategies in video, selected by Catherine Elwes.
- 20: SCRATCH NOW: The state of the Art to date, selected by Andy Lipman.
- 21: MADE FOR TV: recent experiments in video art commissioned by broadcast television, selected by Alex Graham & Jeremy Welsh.
- 22: HYBRID POETICS (film to video) the combined application of film & video techniques that are creating an exciting new area of work, selected by Mike O'Pray.
- All screenings commence 6.30 and 8.30 pm. Admission £1.50.
Information ICA box office, 930 3647.
- 21: ICA SEMINAR ROOM, The Mall, SW1. 10.00 - 5.30.
Channel 5 Video Symposium: a day long conference exploring the current state and future prospects for video in Britain, with sessions on The Critical Perspective: Video as Art; Money Matters; Distribution; Video Pop, Scratch and Fun; Video & Sexuality; Campaign, Community & Action; The European Perspective. The symposium includes a special presentation by organiser of Holland's World Wide Video Festival, TOM VAN VLIET, who will show tapes from this year's festival.
- 30: The Cafe Gallery, by the pool, Southwark Park, SE 16. 7.30
THE LONDON OPEN (part 2) more tapes by London producers. FREE.

CHANNEL 5 is supported by GLA, the Arts Council, City Limits, DER and Channel 4 Television.

Contact: London Video Arts 23 Frith Street London W1. Tel 437 2786