IAN BREAKWELL: LIVE

7.30pm

In the Home and The News, two new colour video-tapes by Ian Breakwell produced at Aidanvision Studios, Carlisle, in which the artist explores the conventions of television studio production by focussing on two aspects of the medium: the television news.

In the Home is a domestic melodrama of absurd intensity in which newlyweds in their ideal home undergo a severe emotional trauma on their wedding night.

The News features a television newsreader who recounts the minutiae of small-town life with due solemnity, but reveals a disturbing element of anarchic behaviour amongst the town's old-age pensioners.
