

SEEN AND HEARD IN LIVERPOOL. TALKED ABOUT EVERYWHERE.

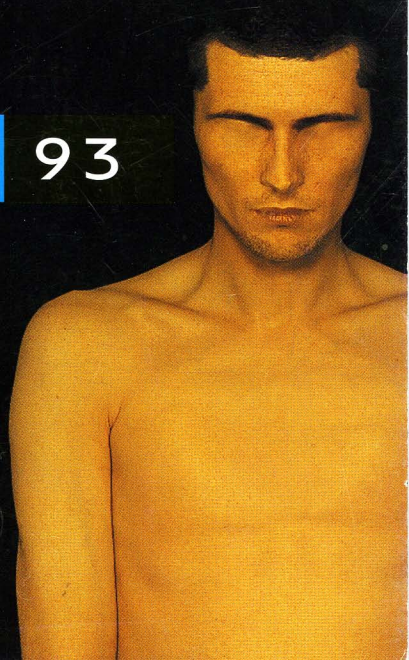

MOVIOLA PRESENTS

VIDEO POSITIVE 93

BRITAIN'S INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF

CREATIVE VIDEO & ELECTRONIC MEDIA ART

FESTIVAL 1- 9 MAY 1993 EXHIBITIONS CONTINUE UNTIL 31 MAY

SCREENINGS 1-9 MAY

UNITY THEATRE £2.50 (£1.50)

BOX OFFICE 051 709 4988

Video Positive presents an expanded screening programme for 1993 at the Unity Theatre amounting to 27 hours of videos spread over 8 days. Programmed in conjunction with Steve Bode at the Film & Video Umbrella, London, except where otherwise stated. The maximum running time of each programme is 90mins.

SAT 1 MAY 7.00PM

GENDER & TECHNOCULTURE

British and American women artists explore futuristic fantasy scenarios and lived experiences which challenge the white, male "norm". One of the highlights of the festival is 'Volatile Memory' a proto-type cyberpunk fiction. Curated by Steven Bode and Helen Cadwallader.

Programme: Involuntary Conversion Jeanne Finlay, Volatile Memory Bender/Tait, Un-fit Jo Pearson, The Art of Losing Memory Kathleen Rogers, Sleep Catherine Elwes, The Houses That Are Left Shelly Silver.

SAT 1 MAY 9.00PM

work, rest and PLAY ►

Some of the very best of recent British work, including conceptual, animated and experimental narrative pieces. Curated by Eddie Berg and Helen Cadwallader.

Programme: Motorway George Snow, The Dreaming Smet Herlinde, Edge Jo Pearson, A Proposition is a Picture Steve Hawley, Proteus Robert Meek, Losing Clive Gillman, Bitter Root Sweet Fruit Nicola Percy, Work, Rest & Play Pictorial Heroes.

SUN 2 MAY 2.00PM

THIS SIDE OF THE CHANNEL (PROG 3)

This premiere screening of the Film & Video Umbrella's latest package is an indispensable primer to the British electronic arts scene, covering the last 20 years.

Programme: Evolution of Form William Latham, Biogenesis William Latham, Superanimism Richard Wright/Jason White, First World Boutique John Butler, Durational Painting Anna Spellman, Pear People in 'Car Race' John Kay, A New Life Simon Biggs, The Cruel Eyes Andy Budd, Flux i.e.