Dear Stephen,

Re: '21 T. V. Pieces'

This letter is a form of agreement regarding the development work to be undertaken by you with respect of the above project, and the remuneration for the carrying out of that development work.

We are asking you to undertake to be a consultant on the project overall, throughout the development period of 13th March 1989 to 31st May 1989 inclusive.

The specific items that we would expect you to undertake, in collaboration with the producers, in connection with the project during the development period are as follows:

to assist in the research & selection of those artists invited to submit a proposal:

to assist in the research & formulation of the artists and graphics briefs:

to assist in the the research and formulation of proposals, and initial activation of both the schools competition, and the exhibition and tour:

to collaborate with the producers and other advisors in formulating the overall design of the exhibition, and the content and formulation of the historical perspective on artists television:

to collaborate with the producers in the raising of sponsorship for the project as a whole, in addition to specific aspects related to equipment for the schools competition and the exhibition.

As beneficial owner you hereby assign to us for the full period of copyright including any extensions or renewals the entire world wide copyright in the product of your services pursuant to this agreement.

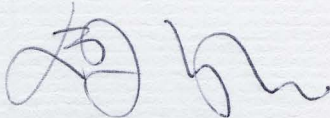

You hereby waive all moral rights in connection with the work produced by you under this agreement.

Remuneration will be in the form of a overall fee of £750.00, to be paid as follows:

£375.00 on 30th April 1989
£375.00 on 31st May 1989

If you are in accordance with the terms of this agreement, please sign the attached copy and return to me.

Your sincerely,

Jane Rigby.
Producer
